The first meeting of the Board of Studies (BoS) for the Faculty of Law, Future University, Bareilly was convened on 31st October 2025 under the Chairmanship of Dr. Mukut B. L. Sharma. The Chairperson welcomed all members and highlighted the significance of this meeting, marking the inception of the Department of Law and the launch of its first academic batch for the session 2025–26.

Item 1: Establishment of the Board of Studies (Law)

The Chairperson formally declared the constitution of the Board of Studies (Law). This marks the beginning of academic governance for the newly formed Faculty of Law at Future University.

Resolution: The formation of BoS (Law) was formally approved.

Item 2: Vision, Mission, and Objectives of the Department

The proposed Vision and Mission statements, along with the Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs), were presented and discussed. The Board appreciated the focus on holistic legal education, ethical professionalism, and interdisciplinary learning in alignment with NEP-2020.

Resolution: Approved unanimously.

Item 3: Approval of Course Structure and Syllabi for 2025–26

The detailed course structure and syllabi for B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) and LL.B. programmes were reviewed. The Board appreciated the inclusion of foundational papers such as Hindu Law, Law of Torts, Constitutional Law, Family Law, and Law of Crimes, and the effort to make notes bilingual for accessibility.

Resolution: Approved and recommended to the Academic Council with minor suggestions.

Item 4: Academic Pedagogy for the Inaugural Batch

The proposed bilingual teaching method, experiential classroom activities, and the internal evaluation system based on UT-01 and UT-02 were discussed. Members emphasized that this model will encourage inclusive and interactive learning for first-generation law students.

Resolution: Approved and adopted as a departmental best practice.

Item 5: Evaluation and Examination Scheme

The proposed internal assessment scheme, including viva-voce, assignments, and attendance-based marks, was presented. The pattern for end-semester examinations was also discussed.

Resolution: Approved as per the departmental proposal.

Item 6: Departmental Infrastructure and Resource Planning

The Board reviewed the infrastructural needs of the newly established department, including a law library, legal databases, smart classrooms, and a moot court hall.

Resolution: Recommended to the University Administration for necessary action and budget allocation.

Item 7: Value-Added and Certificate Courses

The Board considered the proposal for introducing short-term certificate courses such as Legal Drafting and Research Skills, Digital Literacy for Law Students, and Constitutional Values in Practice.

Resolution: Approved for commencement from the academic session 2025–26.

Item 8: Student Development and Legal Awareness Activities

The Board discussed the importance of legal literacy, gender sensitization, and community outreach for holistic student development.

Resolution: Approved; the department shall prepare an annual calendar of activities.

Item 9: Research and Publication Roadmap

The department proposed research and publication plans for both faculty and students focusing on emerging themes such as Artificial Intelligence and Law, Human Rights, and Access to Justice.

Resolution: Approved; the department shall maintain a research and publication repository.

Item 10: Any Other Matter with the Permission of the Chair

The Chairperson congratulated the department for its efforts in laying a strong foundation for the Faculty of Law. Members expressed appreciation and suggested continued collaboration for quality improvement.

Resolution: Noted and approved.
